The TICA Registration Rules, ARTICLE Eight, state:

“38.1 Cattery names may be permanently registered with the association upon written application and payment of the required fees.

38.2 A cattery name may not exceed fifteen letters. Cattery names must differ by two letters.

38.3 A cattery name may not duplicate the name of an accepted breed.

38.4 Registered cattery names may not be used unless the registered owner of the cattery name signs the application for registration or consent of such owner is filed in writing with an established association for cat registration.

38.6 A breeder who initially registers cats without a cattery prefix and subsequently registers a cattery name may subsequently add a cattery prefix by paying the required registration fee to re-register such cats.

38.7 A new owner's registered cattery name may be added as a suffix (preceded by " of ") when this is possible without violating 38.9 or 38.10, of this article or violating ARTICLE TEN, 310.3.

38.8 A cat's name may include only one cattery name prefix and one cattery name suffix.

38.9 Once added, a cattery name suffix cannot be dropped or changed except upon payment of the required fee and surrender of the former registration certificate to the registrar.

38.10 Registered cattery names may be transferred upon surrender of the certificate of cattery name registration with written assignment of the transfer of ownership and payment of the required transfer fee.”
